

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law regarding telemarketing. I do not want any financial institution or other business with which I have an established relationship to be able to make unlimited calls to my home. I have registered my numbers with the Indiana Attorney General's Office because I do not want telemarketing calls.